HOW DID THE FUND PERFORM FOR THE SIX MONTH PERIOD AND WHAT AFFECTED ITS PERFORMANCE?

For the 6-month period ended January 31, 2025, the Fund returned 2.330% (this number includes the Fund expenses and change in Market Value) for Class C underperforming its benchmark, the S&P 500 Index. The Fund's primary objective is growth of capital. The S&P 500 posted a gain of 10.12% while the Dow Jones Industrial Average posted a gain of 10.01% during the reporting period. A performance chart comparing this class to the S&P 500 Index is further down in this report.

WHAT FACTORS INFLUENCED PERFORMANCE?

The Fund is invested primarily in large cap, growth-oriented domestic common stocks. The Fund's largest sector allocation is Computer Software and Services at 18.86% of the portfolio, and the largest holding in the portfolio is Fair Isaac & Company (at 18.86% of the Total Net Assets) which provides decision-making solutions to clients in the financial services, telecommunications and retail industries. The table below shows how the top 3 and bottom 3 stocks performed and how they contribute to the performance of the portfolio. As of this report, as stated in our Key Fund Statistics, our portfolio contained 30 stocks. The S&P 500 Index is a broad index that contains 500 stocks whereas the Dow Jones Industrial Average is an Index that contains 30 stocks. As a diversified portfolio, we follow strict guidelines to maintain our diversification which in turn, can help protect your assets in case of a sudden downturn in a sector or multiple sectors. Sometimes performance can be affected negatively by diversification regulations. This year your Fund was required to sell some stock in order to meet the IRS's diversification standards which negatively affected the performance. Keep in mind, major indexes, such as the two mentioned above, may or may not have to follow the same set of standards on diversification to manage the product and, unlike the Fund, do not have any expenses or overhead.
